PETITIONING THE COURT

To issue a summons.

On November 17, 2023, the offender's conditions of supervised release were explained by the probation officer and he signed said conditions acknowledging he understood his requirements.

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number      Nature of Noncompliance1      Mandatory Condition #1: You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.Supporting Evidence: The offender is alleged to have violated mandatory condition number 1, by committing the offense of Protection Order Violation, in violation of RCW 7.105.450.1, on or about September 3, 2024.

On September 3, 2024, the offender was arrested by the Spokane Police Department for a protection order violation, Spokane Municipal Court case number 4A0540759. He was released from custody on his own recognizance on September 4, 2024, and is scheduled to appear in Spokane Municipal Court for a pretrial conference hearing on September 18, 2024.

According to incident report number 2024-20180574, on September 3, 2024, officers were dispatched to Lidgerwood Elementary School due to a report of a protection order violation. The complainant called on behalf of his girlfriend, who reported the incident to him that same date. Officers made contact with the victim who stated she was dropping her daughter off at school when the offender drove his vehicle in front of her and blocked her car in. He proceeded to approach her vehicle and they had a discussion about one of their children. The victim reported that he became argumentative and then left. Camera footage from the elementary school was reviewed and the information provided by the victim was confirmed. Additionally, the responding officer was able to verify that there is currently a protection order in place between the offender and the victim.

Later that same date, officers located the offender at his place of employment. When questioned, Mr. Rose confirmed he had contact with the victim and stated he was trying to speak to her about their son. Subsequently, Mr. Rose was taken into custody and booked into Spokane County Jail. The incident report notes that the offender was compliant and appeared to be forthcoming with the officers.

On September 5, 2024, Mr. Rose notified the undersigned of his arrest, as required.

The U.S. Probation Office respectfully recommends the Court issue a summons requiring the offender to appear to answer to the allegation(s) contained in this petition.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed on: September 6, 2024
